Christian Valentine Cards That Tell What Love Really Is

So, February 14 is defined as the day to celebrate love, but have you ever stopped to think about what love really is?

1 Corinthians 13: 4

â??Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud.â?•

Such a simple yet profound message about what love should look like. When we truly love we will be patient and kind with those we love; we will not be jealous or boastful but we will be humble. Share the true meaning of love with this Christian Valentine card.

So is love only kind? Well, 1 John 4: 18 tells us something awesome about love.

1 John 4:18

â??Where Godâ??s love is, there is no fear, because Godâ??s perfect love takes away fear.â?•

Itâ??s wonderful to know that when we experience Godâ??s love our fears can be taken away. This is a great message to share with Christian Valentine cards such as this. Everyone needs to know that they can rest peacefully in the love of Jesus without fear. This is one of the most fabulous Christian Valentine Cards to make.

Christian Valentine Cards That Tell How Love Is Expressed

Has anyone ever said to you that â??you are the apple of my eyeâ?•? Sounds a bit ancient maybe but its modern day equivalent could be â??I have my eyes on only you; I will look out for you and protect you.â?•

Psalm 17:8

â??Keep me as the apple of the eye; hide me under the shadow of thy wings.â?•

In this bible verse the Psalmist is so convinced of the love of God that he asks God to be his protector. To show his love by keeping him safe. When we know we are loved we can ask great things of those who love us and most importantly we can ask God to care for us as he would care for a delicate body part as the eye. This â??apple of the eyeâ?• Christian Valentine Card will remind your loved ones that they can ask God to keep them safe because He loves them and you can also tell them to look out for you as they would their eye because you are also loved by them.

One of my favorite Christian Valentine Cards is the Romans 5:8 Christian Valentine Card.

Romans 5:8

â??But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for usâ?•

This scripture is the every essence of the gospel. God loved us so much that he gave his everything. He gave his life. You and I are so precious to Jesus. If you feel you are not important to anyone know for sure that you mean the world to God. That is the reason he died for our sins. This is the most beautiful Christian Valentine Card that I would like everyone to share so all will know that there is someone who really loves them a whole lot.
