What Is Obedience According To The Bible?

According to one encyclopedia, obedience is the complying with a command or precept. So obedience is choosing to follow the instructions given by someone. In the bible we see that God told Adam and Eve not to eat of a particular tree. We find this instruction in Genesis 2: 16,17. If Adam and Eve followed the instruction they would have been considered to be obedient. They however did not follow the instruction and hence are considered to be disobedient.

Deuteronomy 11:1 gives us a full explanation of the obedience definition.

â??Love the Lord your God and keep his requirements, his decrees, his laws and his commands always.â?•

So, obedience is about keeping requirements, decrees, laws and commands all the time. This is required by God and he also commands us to give obedience to others in authority such as parents and leaders.

Ephesians 6: 1-3 states â??Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. Honor your father and motherâ?•â??which is the first commandment with a promiseâ?? â??so that it may go well with you and that you may enjoy long life on the earth.

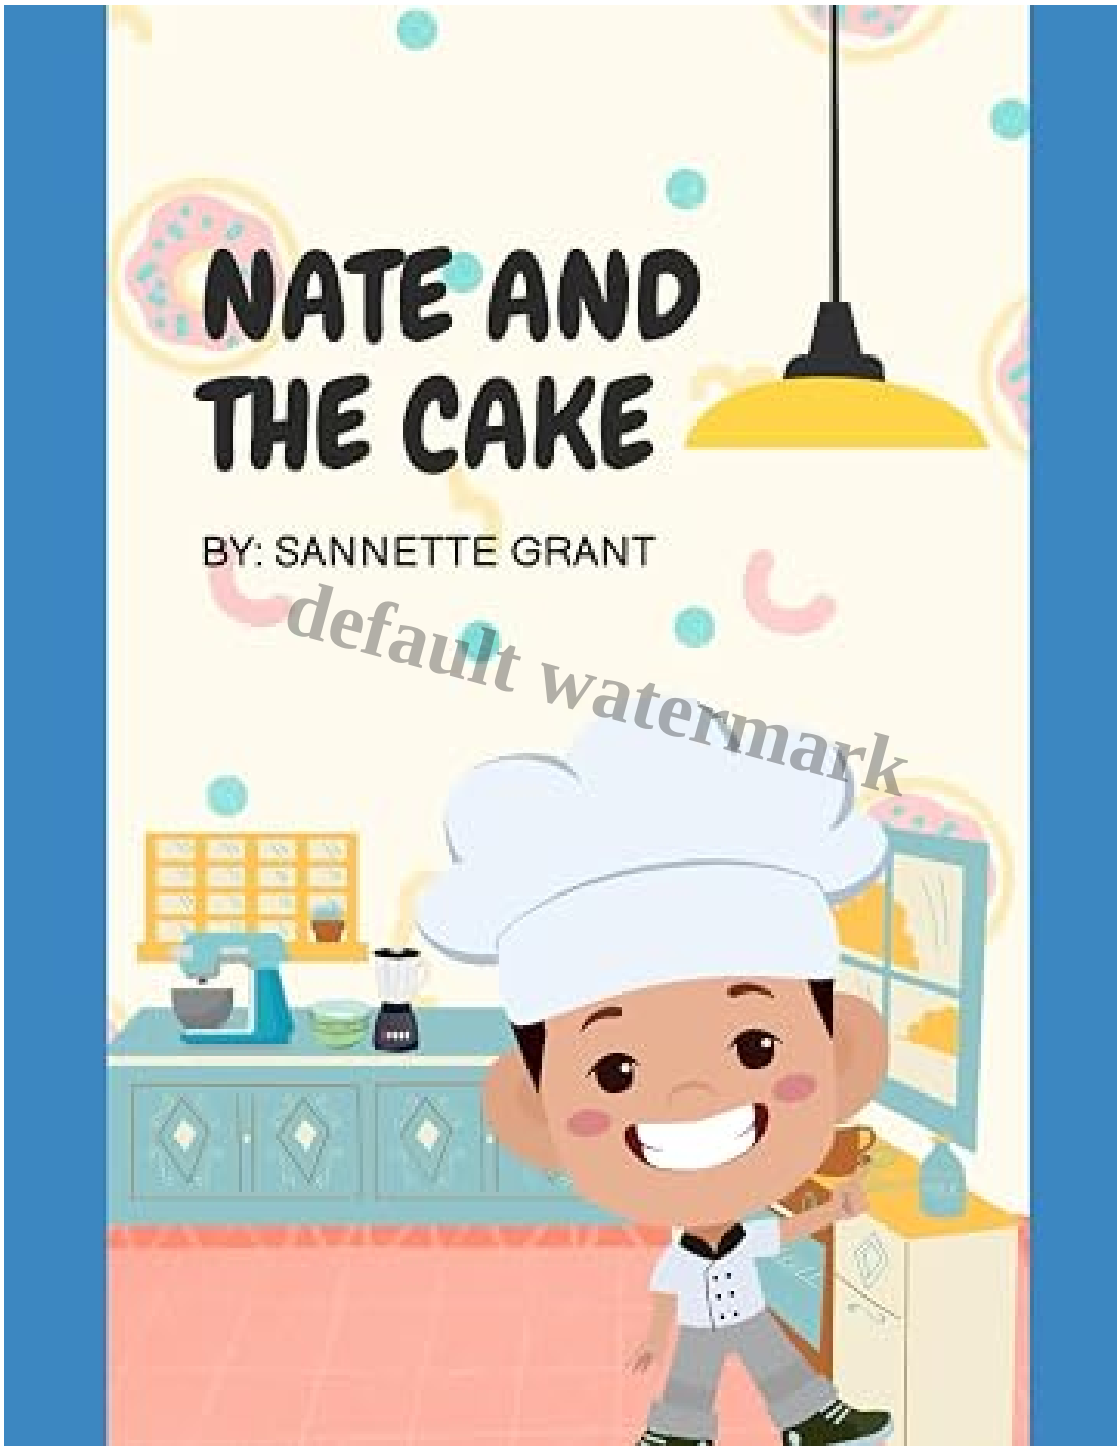

â??Obey your leaders and submit to themâ?• Hebrews 13: 17

So, obedience in the bible is about following the requirements of those in authority over us. In talking to our kids about this topic we need to let them know however that obedience to God is supreme. One obedience bible verse which states this is found in Acts 5: 29, which states that we must obey God rather than men.

All these verses teach us what obedience really is and these are obedience bible verses to share with your kids so that they can understand the truths about obedience.

Examples of Obedience In The Bible

Were there people who chose obedience in the bible? Yes there are many examples of those who obeyed God in the bible. These are found in several obedience bible verses.

One example is with the patriarch Abraham. Abraham was asked by God to sacrifice his son Isaac. Even though this was a difficult and painful thing to do, Abraham chose obedience and went on a journey to sacrifice his son as he was asked to do. Imagine, being asked to do something like that from God? What? Leviticus 20:3-5 shows how God feels about human sacrifices.

â??I will set my face against that man, and against his family, and will cut him offâ?¦â?•

So, why would God ask Abraham for a human sacrifice? It was a test. God wanted to see if Abraham loved his son more or God more. This is a test we get in life today as well, will we choose God or that top job, or dream car for example.

Abraham chose to obey God even though it was an unusual request. In the end, God provided a lamb so Abraham did not sacrifice his son but instead the lamb was offered as a sacrifice. This was also symbolic of Jesus the lamb of God who took the place for all humanity and died instead of us as the payment for sin.

The story of Abraham is found in Genesis 22. This can be a â??scaryâ?• story to share with kids depending on their age so share this story in an age appropriate manner.

Another example is when Moses led the Israelites out of slavery in Egypt. Moses was hesitant at first and had many reasons as to why he could not do follow Godâ??s instructions. He however obeyed because he knew it was Godâ??s requirement. His obedience led to many powerful stories which we find in the bible such as the parting of the Red Sea and manna falling from heaven. The story of Moses being called starts in Exodus 3.

Other stories about obedience in the bible includes that of Noah and the Ark and the story of Esther. In each of these stories, the characters showed obedience to God, even when it was difficult to do so. Noah had to obey God and build a boat, when he had never seen water fall from the sky before. He was ridiculed by those around him yet he still chose obedience. You can view our youtube channel for our Bible in a year podcast with the Noah story.

Esther had to trust God and obey when she could have been killed by going to the king without being summoned. You can find the story of Noah and his choosing obedience in Genesis 6 and the story of Esther is in the book of Esther in the bible. We have spoken about only a few examples of obedience from the Bible however there are many more to inspire us and our kids to choose to be more obedient in our own lives.

Obedience is an important virtue for Christians and it shows our willingness to submit to Godâ??s will. When we are obedient to God, we tell Him that we trust Him and His plan for our lives. As you teach kids the obedience bible verses share with them these bible examples of obedience.

What Is The Fruit Of Obedience?

When Adam and Eve sinned, the human race received the fruit of disobedience and by one man Jesusâ?? obedience the human race can have the fruit of obedience which is eternal life. This truth is expressed in Romans 5: 12-17.

â??Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned:

(For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law.

Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adamâ??s transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come.

But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many.

And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

For if by one manâ??s offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.)â?•

So, the fruit of obedience is sweet. It involves eternal life with Jesus our Savior. The bible says in 1 Corinthians 2: 9 that â??eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.â?• As you study about obedience bible verses, remind your child that the ultimate fruit of obedience will be our salvation where we get to be with Jesus forever.
